THE GIRL TO FIND.

The true girl has to be sought for. She does not parade herself as show goods. She is not fashionable. Generally she is not rich. But, oh! what a heart she has when you find her! Her soul is pure and womanly. When you see it you wonder if those showy things outside were woman. If you gain her love, your two thousand are millions. She'll not ask you for a carriage or a first-class house. She'll wear simple dresses, and turn them when necessary with no view to magnificence to show upon her economy. She'll keep everything neat and nice in your sky parlor, and give you such a welcome when you come home that you'll think your parlor higher than ever. She'll entertain true friends on a regular basis, and you'll find that the thought of her little happiness depends on money. She'll make you love home (if you don't, you're a brute), and teach you how to play, while you scorn a poor fashionable society that thinks itself rich, and vainly tries to think itself happy.

A Beautiful Extract.—One fountain there is, says Miss Bremer, whose deepening view has only just begun to throw up its silver drops among mankind—a fountain which will ally the thirst of millions, and will give to those who drink from it peace and joy. It is knowledge—the fountain of intellectual cultivation, which gives health to mankind; makes clear the vision; brings joy to his life, and breathes over his soul's destiny a sweet repose. Go and drink therefrom from whom fortune has favored, and thou wilt find thyself rich. Thou mayst go forth into the world and find thyself everywhere at home; thou canst't enjoy thyself in thine own little chamber; thy friends are everywhere around thee; nature, antiquity, heaven are accessible to thee.

A school superintendent living in Sutton county, Kansas, recently mailed the following answer to an applicant for a teachership: "I do not mind—Yours of inquiry is just received & at hand & contents noted & I will say this much that we are greatly in need of some good teachers & if you are prepared to undergo a severe examination in spelling, grammar, & fractions, such as I have conducted myself—come on to once. P. S. how would you like to enter the honorable state there are a great many young men of high tone, and superior mental acquirements here who are red hot for a wife, and if you play your cards d-n sharp you want teach very long. Yours in respect W. W. B.

A most astonishing mountain monster, frightening the Shoshone District, North Carolina, out of its senses. One horror-stricken individual who has seen the beast describes it as being as big as size as ox, as to its horns as elk, as to mane and head as lion, as to tail as horse, as to eyes as pouter, while its voice is a mixture of low, roar, neigh and growl. This agreeable quadruped is suspected, and also burglarious, and the inhabitants are fortifying their houses against a night attack by the miscellaneous compilation.

The promised enlargement of the Pioche Record has taken place, and is now by the copy thereof received by us this morning. Still further improvements are contemplated, and also a steam engine to run the same. Go it; that shows health, pluck and prosperity.—Gold Hill news.
